FLYING FISHERS.

The flying fishers, Al and his cat, have a few thrilling adventures while fishing from their airplane. After the cat has caught a few fish, and Al has been pulled into the water by a huge fish and risen to the surface again, the fishermen convert their plane into a submarine and drive into the sea.

The cat teases another large fish that finally gets into the submarine and chases Al and the cat out. Al and the fish fight. Al runs, followed by the cat and the fish and jumping into the submarine transforms it back into a plane.

They elude the fish, but the cat lassoes the fish whose weight brings the fishers back into the ocean.

IN A TUB OF WATER THREE TIMES AND PULL IT OUT TWICE. "
